Kotamangalam Bathing Pool.

83. MR. TARIATU KUNJITOMMAN (Muvattupuzha cum Todupuzha): Will the Government be pleased to state the reasons for not yet completing the construction of the Kotamangalam bathing pool?

MR. T. P. RAMASUBBA AIYAR (Secretary to Government): The work has been practically completed except for the fitting up of the shutter-planks and rubble pitching. The flood in the river stood in the way of completing these latter items.

Markets.

84. MR. ITTOOP ITTEECHAN (Kunnatnad): Will the Government be pleased to state:

(a) the number of markets at present (2-3-1104) in the Kunnatnad taluk;

(b) the respective amounts realised from the auction sale of each market in the Kunnatnad taluk in 1102 and 1103;

(c) the names of markets to which facilities have been afforded for enabling petty dealers to sell their commodities taken to the markets and the nature and extent of facilities in each case;

(d) the number of wells that have been sunk for the use of the public in each of the markets in the Kunnatnad taluk;

(e) the names of markets in which sheds have been put up for keeping and selling commodities taken thereto and the number of sheds in each;

(f) whether they are aware that, for want of sheds in the markets at Perumbavur, Ankamali and other places for keeping and selling the commodities taken to those markets, the people are incuring great loss and experiencing hardships; and

(g) if the answer to part (f) is in the affirmative, the reason for not putting up the necessary sheds till now (2-3-1104) as a remedy for this?

LIBRARY ARCHIVES Kerala Legislative Assembly

MR. P. N. KRISHNA PILLAI (Secretary to Government) : (a) There are ten public markets in the Kunnatnad taluk.

(b) A statement* showing the amount realised from the auction sale of each market in the Kunnatnad taluk in 1102 and 1103 is laid on the table.

(c) Stalls and sheds have not been put up by the Government but there are temporary sheds in some markets put up by the dealers themselves for their convenience.

(d) There are wells only in four markets, viz., the Ankamali, Kumarapuram, Perumbavur, Ramavarmapuram and Puthencruz Ramavarmapuram vegetable markets.

(e) None.

(f) The Government are not aware ; but the matter will be enquired into.

(g) This does not arise in view of the answer to part (f).

(b) If there are such undisposed of petitions, will they be pleased to lay on the table a statement showing the years to which they relate and the communities to which the petitioners belong ?

MR. T. P. RAMASUBBA AIYAR (Secretary to Government) : (a) 116.

(b) All the cases relate to the year 1103. It is difficult to make out the communities to which the petitioners belong from the records available.

First Class Magistrate's Court, Alwaye.

86. MR. ITTOOP ITTEECHAN (Kunnatnad) : Are the Government aware :

(i) that the First Class Magistrate's Court at Alwaye is being housed in a building originally used for holding the Anchal Office ;

(ii) that a Police Station, a lock-up and a big public market are situate very near the building in which the First Class Magistrate's Court is being held ; and

(iii) that officers, vakils and clients are put to great difficulties on account of the close proximity of public institutions such as public markets, etc., and on account of the smallness of the building ?

MR. P. N. KRISHNA PILLAI (Secretary to Government) : (i) The building where the First Class Magistrate's Court is held was originally used for holding the Anchal Office and subsequently for holding the Alwaye Stationary Magistrate's Court.

(ii) A Police Station with a lock-up is attached to the building where the Court is held. There is a public market at a distance of about half a furlong from the Court house.

(iii) The answer is in the negative.
